PROFILE

Growth marketer who works the whole path from first click to customer: paid acquisition across Google, Meta and LinkedIn, the landing page, the tracking underneath it, and the handover to sales. Leads digital marketing at SecurEyes across cybersecurity consulting, the Sastrum GRC SaaS product and a cybersecurity education programme, overseeing roughly ₹5–10 lakh a month in ad spend. Came to marketing through four years of B2B sales, retail sales and customer retention in India and the UK, so judges campaigns on lead quality and what happens after the conversion, not on volume. Builds landing pages, funnels and marketing tools with AI-assisted development.

EXPERIENCE

Digital Marketing Executive · SecurEyes — Jul 2025 – Present

Bengaluru · cybersecurity consulting, the Sastrum GRC SaaS product and the Cyber Security Certificate Program (CSCP) · sole marketer

- Plan and run paid acquisition across Google, Meta and LinkedIn Ads, overseeing approximately ₹5–10 lakh in monthly budgets and tracking spend against campaign goals.
- Supported ₹1.2Cr+ in consulting pipeline through performance marketing and demand generation; use GA4 and CRM data to follow enquiries through MQL, SQL and opportunity.
- CSCP: generated 1,000+ leads for a 50-seat cohort on about ₹2 lakh a month of Meta spend and filled all 50 seats, optimising for lead quality over volume.
- Built the Cyber Career Discovery Platform: a 15-question funnel that scores five dimensions into six career profiles and gives every visitor a written report, instrumented with GA4, Tag Manager and the Meta Pixel.
- Wrote the global go-to-market strategy for Sastrum: positioning for three buyer groups, website and conversion, content/SEO/AEO, paid, PR, partners and a KPI framework, set out as a six-month roadmap. Built sastrum.ai and produced the launch films.
- Ran 10+ cybersecurity and career webinars from topic and speakers to promotion and follow-up, typically 100–150 attendees each.
- Edited the 20th Foundation Day digital magazine and ran the anniversary social and event campaign; coordinate the external PR agency on press, podcasts and visibility.
